Lake County-CSKT Unified Command Center (UCC) – The Lake County-CSKT Unified Command Center has just launched a new Web site to serve the community, <http://www.ucc-jic.com>

This site contains the latest information and updates that impact the Mission Valley. It contains the Lake County and Tribal health information along with information from the surrounding counties, Montana and federal agencies. Also included are active grass-roots efforts to serve public needs. Schools and other agencies are also listed.

Currently featured is a video of Lake County Commissioner Bill Barron and Chairwoman Shelly R. Fyant of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes. They discuss Montana's plan to reopen businesses under Phase One of the plan. Lake County has chosen to open business under the plan. CSKT has chosen to keep a Shelter in Place order for lands and operations under its jurisdiction.

The Web site is be the site of regular informational updates and will serve as the main communication platform for the Unified Command, which is empowered by both Lake County and CSKT to address the novel coronavirus threat in the community.
